Company Fined $28,000 after Two Forklifts Collide

Two forklifts collided in a company’s shipping yard, seriously injuring a worker. As a result, the company pleaded guilty to failing to develop and implement a traffic control plan to protect its workers. The court fined it $28,000 [Premier Horticulture Ltd., Govt. News Release, Oct. 16, 2015].