Administrative Penalties Imposed for Non-Compliance with Orders

The government imposed administrative penalties on two companies for failing to comply with Improvement Orders:

- One company permitted persons who weren’t deemed to be electrical workers to perform electrical work
- The other company failed to implement a fall protection system where there was a risk of workers falling while performing their work activities [Ace Signs & Services Ltd. and Above All Roofing & Renovations Inc., Govt. News Release, Jan. 23, 2014].
