

Alberta: Trucking Safety

March 1: New entry-level safety training for Class 1 and Class 2 drivers adopted in the wake of the Humboldt Broncos hockey team bus tragedy took effect in Alberta. Drivers getting a Class 1 or Class 2 licence between now and then will have to take the new enhanced knowledge and road test (at government expense) when it goes into effect in March.