

April 10: Window-Washer Killed in Crane Collapse

A window-washer died and his son was seriously injured when the crane they were using toppled over, sending them crashing to the ground about 20 metres below. Three other workers were treated for shock. The cause of the incident is under investigation.