

April 12: Airport Surrenders Licence Due to Safety Issues

An airport in Okotoks voluntarily surrendered its licence so that it can address safety issues, including unauthorized breaches of the landing area, increased regulatory compliance and seasonal elevated levels of wildlife activities at and around the airport. The airport is now closed and the changes required by the regulator may be too expensive for it to be able to open again.