April 27: Crane Company Worker Struck and Killed by Crane Part

A group of workers were taking a crane apart when a piece of the crane struck an employee of the crane company, who later died at the hospital. The incident occurred at the NOVA Chemicals PE1 Expansion Project construction site. OHS officials are investigating and issued a stop-work order for any crane dismantling.