

Auto Parts Depot Fined $185,000 for Worker's Fatality

An auto repair worker got killed when the vehicle he was under fell on him. The employer, a Calgary parts depot, was fined $185,000 and put on 2 years' corporate probation for failing to prepare a report of a hazard assessment and the methods used to control the hazards identified [908732 Alberta Ltd., operating as Forest Lawn Parts Depot, July 5, 2021].