

Company and Owner Charged with Pesticide Violations

The government laid charges against a company and its owner for failing to comply with pesticide regulations and environmental laws. The charges under the Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act include:

- Applying a pesticide without a valid pesticide service registration
- Knowingly applying a pesticide without a valid pesticide service registration
- Failing to report the release of a substance into the environment [Air Ag North Ltd. and Randal Seaholm, Govt. News Release, June 3, 2015].