

Electrical Incident Results in $5,000 Fine

An incident at a food production plant resulted in a worker suffering third-degree burns to his hand and arm. The plant pleaded guilty to allowing an unauthorized worker to work on electrical equipment. It was fined $5,000 [Dairytown Products Ltd., Govt. News Release, Nov. 23, 2012].