

Employer Fined $35,000 for Worker's Drowning

A worker drowned when he was shutting down a water pump and draining canals near Outlook. His employer pleaded guilty to one OHS violation and was fined $35,000 [South Saskatchewan River Irrigation District No. 1, Govt. News Release, March 20, 2014].