

Fire Prevention Compliance Schedule Checklist

Fire prevention is a collective responsibility that requires continuous action on a year-round basis. Here's a template of a Schedule you can use to implement your own workplace fire prevention plan. Caveat: The Schedule is generic and you might have to adjust the timing of different measures, particularly with regard to the inspection, testing and maintenance of equipment based on the instructions provided by the manufacturer of the equipment and the OHS regulations of your own jurisdiction.