First Aid Facilities Inspection Checklist: Emergency Transport Vehicle Treatment Equipment

Introduction: How to Use This Tool

Emergency vehicles must be maintained and operated in accordance with OHS requirements for vehicles and manufacturer's instructions. In addition to vehicle maintenance, you should conduct regular inspections of emergency vehicles at least once a month to ensure they contain the treatment equipment specified by the first aid regulations. The following inspection checklist is based on BC OHS laws but can be easily modified for any part of Canada.