

How to Achieve Better Communication Between Your JHSC and Management

Title: How to Achieve Better Communication Between Your JHSC and Management

Speaker: Yvonne O'Reilly, CRSP

A well implemented OHS program relies on effective communication, integrated throughout the organization. JHSCs need to be able to work as a cohesive team and have the ability to successfully communicate with management. This webinar will also review the value of identifying your 'target customers,' and how assessing and addressing their needs can lead to lasting changes.
