

Influencing Safety: What the Most Successful Safety Leaders Do Differently

This is a webinar from 2021, reflective upon the COVID-19 pandemic, but the principles and strategies mentioned are still applicable for HR directors and safety managers looking to remain compliant and safe in the workplace.

Recorded Date: January 27th, 2021

Time: 9 a.m. PDT / 12 p.m. EDT

Expert Speaker: Garrison Wynn, CSP, Fortune 500 Leader, and Professional Stand-up comedian

We hear the term 'employee engagement' a lot these days. We also hear how recognition, goal alignment and a clear path to success can create it. But how can engagement produce a sustainable culture of safety as we strive for zero incidents'

Drawing from Gallup research across 46 countries (research shows that engaged employees are 48% safer on the job than their disengaged counterparts), this highly informative and entertaining session reveals how skilled leaders at all levels create safety. From this session, leaders acquire specific communication tools they can use to dramatically reduce resistance to change, improve situational awareness and create a safer work environment. The impact of this program reaches far beyond the session itself, creating an emotional shift that fuels immediate implementation.

Segments include:

- Nobody wants to be a senior beginner: getting buy-in on change
- Remote control safety: managing remote employees
- COVIDITY: pandemic leadership
- Getting frontline supervisors to believe
- Reducing complacency and increasing awareness
- Safety for all generations: the aging workforce vs millennial mindset
- Action and adaptability create opportunity
