

Ionizing Radiation Inspection Checklist

Are you doing enough to protect your workers against radiation exposure'

Many jurisdictions require employers to ensure that specific log books for each crane used at the site be not only maintained but also reviewed at least once a year. Here's a template, based on a model from Alberta, that you can adapt to create a written record documenting your annual log book review.