

Joint Health and Safety Committee Rules of Procedure

BENEFIT

Joint health and safety committees (JHSCs) must adopt a set of bylaws, typically referred to as Rules of Procedure or Terms of Reference, laying out the procedural rules by which it will elect members, call meetings, issue recommendations and carry out its other activities.

HOW TO USE THIS TOOL

This Model Policy comes from WorkSafeBC and is based on BC OHS laws. But the template can be adapted for any jurisdiction.