June 10: 60th Annual Mine Rescue Competition

Mine rescue is a critically important part of any mine safety program. In the 60th Annual Mine Rescue Competition, spectators can watch teams from across Canada showcase their mine rescue skills and learn from one another. The competition is on June 10, 2017 at the Yellowknife Multiplex/Fieldhouse Parking Lot. There are eight teams from seven mines participating in this year’s event.