

March 23: Large Piece of Ice Kills Worker

A large piece of ice fell from an excavation wall and onto a worker inside a massive pit at a construction site. Ottawa Fire Services used a basket and on-site crane to lift the worker from the pit, which was more than 30 metres deep. But he died from his injuries. The MOL is investigating the incident.