

March 29: Welder Dies in Fall from Scaffolding

A 29-year-old welder at a pipeline construction site died after falling about 20 metres from scaffolding. It's unclear whether the welder was wearing fall protection equipment at the time. The OHS department of the Alberta Ministry of Labour is investigating and has issued a stop-work order.