

March 30: Explosion at Iron Plant Injures Four

Four people were taken to hospital after an explosion at the Rio Tinto Iron and Titanium plant in Sorel-Tracy. The extent of their injuries aren't known, although they're not believed to be life-threatening. The facility was evacuated. The cause of the explosion involving carbon monoxide used in the production process is under investigation.