

March 31: City Worker Killed by Falling Tree Branch

A worker for the City of Vancouver was killed when a branch of a damaged tree he was pruning fell on top of him. He was working from the bucket of an elevated boom-arm truck at the time of the incident and the branch crushed him against the interior of the bucket, causing serious head trauma. CUPE 1004 is helping WorkSafeBC investigate the incident.