May 25: Worker Found Dead Next to Excavator

A worker at a school demolition site in Yarmouth was found dead next to an excavator. A preliminary medical report said he’d died of natural causes, but OHS officials are currently investigating the incident. The Department of Labour did issue a stop-work order for a piece of heavy equipment unrelated to the incident.