May 3: Worker Dies in Fall from Scaffolding

A worker was working on scaffolding at a construction site when he fell about 7.5 metres to the ground. He died from his injuries at the hospital. Alberta Ministry of Labour OHS officials are investigating the incident and the MOL has issued a stop-work order. It’s unclear whether the worker had been wearing fall protection equipment at the time of the incident.