Model Respirator Seal Check Procedures

Under OHS regulations, workers required to use respirators with tight-fitting facepieces must do a seal check before each use to ensure they put the respirator on right and that it’s working properly. Here’s a model procedure instructing workers how to do seal checks that you can adapt for your own use.