

Nov. 11: Montreal Began Dumping Raw Sewage into River

Montreal began dumping eight billion litres of raw sewage into the St. Lawrence River while repair work is being done on an aging interceptor tunnel that feeds sewage to a treatment facility and a snow chute is relocated. The city took out full-page ads in local newspapers explaining that the planned discharge is unfortunate but necessary.