

Nov. 23: Young Worker Dies at Pulp and Paper Mill

A 23-year-old worker employed by a contractor was killed at a pulp and paper mill in Hinton. He was installing a handrail on a tower at the mill when he got entangled in a piece of equipment and subsequently died from his injuries. OHS officials are investigating the incident.