

Oct. 6: Farm Worker Dies after Getting Entangled in Equipment

A 51-year-old farm worker was part of a crew working on a mechanical beet-harvesting project. He became entrapped in some of the machinery and died at the scene. The BC Coroners Service, WorkSafeBC and Surrey RCMP are investigating this incident.