OHS Program Audit Checklist

Purpose

This checklist is designed to help employers audit their occupational health and safety program against current Canadian legal expectations, modern enforcement practices, and evolving prevention standards.

This tool is intended for internal auditing and continuous improvement. It should be used alongside jurisdiction specific legal requirements and, where appropriate, legal counsel.