

Older Drivers in the Workplace: How Employers and Workers Can Prevent Crashes

This fact sheet from NIOSH gives employers and workers information on age-related physical and mental changes that may affect older workers' driving, as well as resources and checklists for workers and employers to promote safe driving strategies. (Although the statistics are from the US, the advice and issues apply in Canada as well.) Down a PDF of the fact sheet below.