

Petroleum Storage Tank Violations Leads to $150K Fine

An agricultural services provider from Saskatchewan was fined $150K for transferring petroleum products into unidentified storage-tank systems in violation of Storage Tank Systems for Petroleum Products Regulations. The company's name was also added to the Environmental Offenders Registry [Crop Production Services \(Canada\) Inc., Govt. News Release, March 14, 2018].