

Return to Work Plan Monitoring Form

BENEFITS

When an injured or ill worker is able to come back, you should develop an appropriate return to work (RTW) plan for them. And to ensure that the plan is effective and is working for both the worker and the workplace, you should monitor the plan's progress.

HOW TO USE THE TOOL

Adapt this Return to Work Plan Monitoring Form your workplace and RTW program. Employers and workers should use this form to assist in tracking progress throughout the RTW plan.
