

The Origins and Evolution of the Certificate of Recognition: A Blessing or a Curse?

This webinar examined the new and evolving business reality of the Certificate of Recognition program and its growing national presence. This webinar identified what a Certificate of Recognition is, where it started, what are its requirements, and why it is important to have one. This webinar also critiqued the strengths and weaknesses of the Certificate of Recognition program and whether it delivers what is intended. This webinar recording is recommended for anyone adopting or implementing a Certificate of Recognition program, including business leaders, management and OHS Professionals.

You can also download the slide deck here.