

Traffic Hazards Management & Control Policy

INTRODUCTION

Being struck by moving vehicles, powered mobile equipment or the loads they're carrying is a common source of worker fatalities and serious injuries. OHS laws require employers to implement a combination of engineering, procedural, training, PPE and apparel measures to protect their workers and ensure nobody is hit or run over by the equipment or its load.