

Whom To Call To Report a Spill or Discharge

Every jurisdiction has an 'emergency spill hotline' that you can call to report a spill or release of a hazardous substance. Here's where to report such incidents in each part of Canada.

Download, print and place this chart in your workplace.

WHOM TO CALL TO REPORT A SPILL OR DISCHARGE
Jurisdiction	Office	Phone Number
Federal	Environmental Protection, also called the Director of public emergencies at the following offices:	416-349-0971
Alberta	Alberta Ministry of Environment	780-422-6000 or 1-800-322-6009
BC	Emergency Response Program, Ministry of Public Safety and Fire Services Canada	1-800-465-3436
Manitoba	Manitoba Dept. of Conservation	204-944-1888
New Brunswick	Emergency Response Office, Environment Canada, Fredericton and Saint John	506-426-6000 or 1-800-566-1633
Newfoundland	Environmental Protection, Labrador Regional Office, St. John's	709-775-2082 or 1-800-566-0900
New York	Emergency Response Office, Environment Canada, Fredericton and Saint John	506-426-6000 or 1-800-566-1633
Ontario	Spills Action Centre, Office of the Minister of Environment	416-325-4000 or 1-800-387-6000
Prince Edward Island	Emergency Response Office, Environment Canada, Fredericton and Saint John	506-426-6000 or 1-800-566-1633
Quebec	Environmental Protection Services, Quebec - Quebec, Environment Canada	514-387-3333 or 1-800-387-1333
Saskatchewan	Sask. Ministry of Environment	1-800-667-7935
Northwest Territories & Nunavut	Department of Environment and Natural Resources, Yukon and the Northwest Territories	867-926-8000
Yukon	Yukon Department of Environment &	867-667-7935

Download, print and place this chart in your workplace.