

Worker's Injuries While Dismantling Scaffold Result in $12,600 Fine

A worker was seriously injured while dismantling a scaffold. The construction company pleaded guilty to one violation of the OHS Act for failing to utilize a fall protection system. It was fined $12,600. Three other charges against it were stayed [CDK Holdings Ltd., Govt. News Release, April 19, 2013].